MEET OUR 2027 RECIPIENTS

KARINA MILLER, TEACHER AT MUSTANG CENTRAL MIDDLE SCHOOL

Karina and Jordan Miller's son, Miles, was born seven weeks early with complex conditions affecting eating and breathing. He is a playful, loving toddler who enjoys sports and crunchy snacks. BEAST Week will help with past medical bills and future procedures, including specialized care in Oklahoma and Boston.

MICHELLE MOORE, NURSE AT MUSTANG SOUTH MS & HORIZON INTERMEDIATE

Michelle Moore, known as Nurse Michelle, was diagnosed with breast cancer in January 2025. Surgery, chemotherapy, and radiation have been followed by ongoing care and lasting side effects. Her family's message is simple: "We can do hard things." BEAST Week will help with medical expenses that continue beyond her initial treatment.

CRYSTAL RECKNAGEL, INSTRUCTIONAL COACH AT MUSTANG HIGH SCHOOL

Crystal and Corban Recknagel's daughter, Kira, was born with Trisomy 18. Her feisty personality, love of music, and delight in cuddles bring her family joy. BEAST Week will help with medical expenses and future mobility and accessibility needs as her family celebrates each new milestone.

ARIAH BROWN, 3RD GRADER AT MUSTANG TRAILS ELEMENTARY

Ariah was diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia in September 2025. Through chemotherapy and hospital stays, she continues to find joy in video games, outdoor play, and laughter with her family. BEAST Week will help with housing and transportation needs, easing the financial strain of her ongoing care.

CAVETT KIDS FOUNDATION

THE CAVETT KIDS FOUNDATION

Since 1997 Cavett Kids has provided FREE camps, programs and special events for children battling life-threatening illnesses. Camp Cavett is our largest camp to date serving over 200 children from Oklahoma and surrounding states. But it's truly more than a camp. It's a place "where illness does not define the child."
